1. All new members shall attend new member orientation meetings.
2. Any Council member may miss a maximum of three unexcused FAC mandatory events including, but not limited to, general meetings, hearings, and deliberations without penalty in an academic semester.
3. If a member misses more than three unexcused mandatory events, the Council may complete the impeachment process according to Article IV Section 5 of the Council Constitution.

ARTICLE IV APPLICATION TIMELINE

Section 1: Applications for Funding

1. Applications for FAC and ICA funding will be made available to organizations within the first three weeks of each semester.
2. An informational meeting shall be hosted by the Council for all organizations interested in applying for FAC funding no later than the end of the fifth week of each semester.
3. Separate applications for FAC and ICA funding will be due no earlier than the end of the sixth week of each semester and no later than six weeks before the end of each semester.

4. An FAC event is defined as any event funded by the FAC General Account for activities not involving Inter-Collegiate competition and/or exhibition.
5. An ICA funded group is defined as any organization funded by the ICA Account specifically for Inter-Collegiate competition and/or exhibition.
6. An ICA group must, when requested, provide documentation for their respective event(s) or documentation of the previous year's (or most recent) event in order to determine the competitive nature of the event. This documentation can include itineraries, schedules, programs, etc.

Section 2: Hearings

1. Each organization eligible for a hearing, as specified in Article VII, Section 3 of the Funds Allotment Council Constitution, may have a hearing within two weeks of the application deadline.
2. An organization may not need attend a hearing if their application is deemed thorough and complete as to be decided by the Council President and the Advisor.
3. An organization that was deemed to not need a hearing per Article IV, Section 2, Clause 2 may still request that they be given a hearing.
4. At the hearing, each organization will present a detailed outline of the purpose of their proposed event, as well as an estimated timeline.
5. All Council members may question any organization member in order to clarify the organization's event application.
6. Organizations may ask questions regarding the funding process or for clarification from the Council
7. A minimum of three FAC Council members, including at least one Executive Officer, will be present for each organizational hearing

Section 3: Deliberations and Slate of Events

1. The Council shall, after all hearings have been completed, conduct closed deliberations to discuss and vote on each application for funding.
2. Deliberations shall be presided over by the Council President and the order in which to discuss applications for funding shall be left to their discretion.
3. A group's funding may be reduced-if they apply for the wrong category of funding or if they fail to completely fill out and turn in the funding application and supporting forms by the due date or if they fail to arrive to a scheduled hearing without an approved excuse. The amount reduced will be an amount determined by the Council.
4. A 6/9 Executive Council vote shall be required by the Council to approve the slate as a whole. If the vote does not pass, each group shall be voted upon individually and a 6/9 Executive Council vote shall be required by the Council to approve each group's funding.
5. Any application for Funding that gains a 6/9 Executive Council vote during deliberations shall be included on the proposed slate of events.
6. After voting on the amount of funding for all approved applications, any Council member may move to recall any application for funding that has been voted on previously for the purpose of reallocating those funds or removal from the slate during deliberations.
7. Using the results of deliberations, the Council shall complete and present a slate of FAC and ICA Events to the Student Association as specified within Article VII, Section 4 of the Funds Allotment Council Constitution.
8. From the time that deliberations are completed to the time that the proposed slate of events is presented to the Student Association, all decisions made concerning the proposed slate of events shall remain confidential.
9. All discussions held during deliberations are to remain confidential.
10. The individual voting record of all Council members during deliberations is to remain confidential.
11. Any Council member who violates the confidentiality of the By-laws Article IV, Section 3, Clause 8-10 will be subject to a conduct hearing and removal as outlined in Article V of the Funds Allotment Council Constitution.

Section 4: Approval of the Slate

1. The slate shall be considered approved if no organization presents grievances with regard to the funding process within two weeks of the presentation of the slate to the Student Association.
2. If a student or an organization submits a grievance, all sections of the slate not directly affected by the submitted grievance will still be considered approved.
3. The Slate of FAC and ICA Events shall include a list of all applications received, a brief summary of why each event did or did not receive funding, the amount and breakdown of funds received by each group, and a detailed outline of how allotted funds will be spent by each organization.

4. All organizations that receive funding must adhere to the outline when requesting funds. Any organization may request a change in their outline. A change in the outline shall require a 6/9 Executive Council vote.

Section 5: Grievance Process

1. Any student organization that participated in the funding application process may file a formal complaint with the Council if they are unsatisfied with the results of the process.
2. All grievances will follow the process outlined in Article VII Section 5 of the Council's Constitution.

ARTICLE V REALLOTMENTS AND REAPPROPRIATIONS

Section 1: Reallotment Process

1. An organization may petition for a transfer of funds from one funding category to another.
2. Any reallotment must be approved by the Council by a 6/9 Executive Council Vote
3. The Council Secretary shall record all reallotments on the "Reallotments" form for internal use of the Council
4. The Council Treasurer shall update the public slate showing the reallotment for the amended categories

Section 2: Reappropriation Process

1. The Council may require groups to undergo the reappropriation process as outlined in the FAC Constitution Article VII, Section 7
2. To begin the reappropriation process for an organization, it must first be motioned by a member of the Council and approved by a 6/9 vote of the Council's Internally and Externally elected membership. A vote yes means that the Council deems the reappropriation process necessary for a funded organization. A vote no means that the Council does not deem the reappropriation process necessary and a funded organization may ask for a reallotment of funds as outlined in Article V, Section 1 of the Council By-Laws
3. It is the duty of the FAC liaison to schedule a reappropriation hearing for a student organization with the FAC Secretary.
4. The Council may vote to freeze specific categories of an organization's slate as part of the reappropriation process, as opposed to the entire slate. The council will examine the applicability of the funds in each category to the organization's original, Council-approved, purpose for funding to determine which categories of funding require an alternative application as outlined in the FAC Constitution Article VII Section 7
5. The Council Secretary shall record all reappropriations on the "Reallotment" form and to make special note that it is for reappropriation
6. The Council Treasurer shall update the public slate showing the reappropriation for the amended categories

ARTICLE VI COUNCIL SANCTIONS

Section 1: Misrepresentation of Organization

1. Any organization that fraudulently claims to be chartered when applying for funding may be denied the right to apply for funding for up to two funding periods.
2. Any organization that fraudulently claims to have approval for the event from their advisor when applying for funding may be denied the right to apply for funding for up to two funding periods.
3. Any individual who fraudulently claims to have approval for an event from their organization may be denied the right to apply for funding for up to two funding periods.
4. Any other deliberate misrepresentation in the application or hearing process shall result in the organization being denied the right to apply for funding for up to four funding periods.
5. To determine whether there has been a misrepresentation of an organization, sanctioning must be passed by a 6/9 Executive Council vote.

Section 2: Misuse of Funds

1. Any FAC or ICA organization that submits a FRF for an amount greater than the amount allotted to it by the Council, except reserve funds, may be denied the right to apply for funding for up to four funding periods.
2. Any FAC or ICA organization that spends money for a purpose other than that specified in their outline, or in a manner not approved by the Council, may be denied the right to apply for funding for up to four funding periods.

3. Any FAC or ICA funded organization that brings in revenue from admission to an event in excess of the money it directly contributed, and does not return such revenue to the Organizational Activities Fund, as outlined in Article VIII of the Council By-Laws, may be denied the right to apply for funding for up to four funding periods.
4. Any FAC or ICA organization that fails to spend at least 50% of its allotted funds shall be denied the right to apply for funding for up to two funding periods.
5. To determine whether there has been a misuse of funds, sanctioning must be passed by a 6/9 Executive Council vote.

Section 3: Restricting Access to an Event

1. Any organization that denies access to any member of the Student Association when hosting an event may be denied the right to apply for funding for up to four funding periods. This excludes those instances where removal of an individual is necessary to the enjoyment of other patrons or in those instances where further admission will present a hazard.
2. ICA groups must allow any member of the Student Association to practice with the team, but may restrict who travels with the team and plays in games or tournaments.
3. The Council shall determine if a group may restrict access to an event by a 6/9 Executive Council vote.

Section 4: Publicity

1. Any organization that fails to adequately publicize an event to the extent that attendance is limited shall be denied the right to apply for funding for up to two funding periods. Events must be publicized at least one week before the event start date.
2. FAC groups must advertise at least once a semester.
3. Groups who receive ICA funds must advertise the opportunity for students to participate in their organization at least once a year. Any organization that fails to do so shall be denied the right to apply for funding for up to two funding periods.
4. Publicity materials funded by the Council must include the FAC logo or an acknowledgment that the event or group is being sponsored by the Council.
5. Posters funded by the Council must advertise for a specific event. This may be waived by a 6/9 Executive Council vote.
6. To determine whether a group has publicized adequately, publicity must be passed by a 6/9 Executive Council vote.

Section 5: Breach of Contract

1. Any organization that fails to meet the terms of a contract as agreed upon by the contracting agency and the organization may be denied that right to apply for funding for two funding periods.
2. All organizations must comply with the policies of the Center for Student Involvement in relation to contracts or third-party contracting agencies involving allotted funds. The Council reserves the right to deny the disbursement of allotted funding to any organization that fails to adhere to this rule.
3. Any organization that fraudulently signs a contract by forging a signature or otherwise falsifies information in the contract may be denied the right to apply for funding for up to four funding periods.
4. Any organization that fraudulently represents the University by attempting to enter into contractual agreements on behalf of the University may be denied the right to apply for funding for up to four funding periods. All organizational Activities Funds must be dispersed with proper University authority.
5. Any organization that has agreed to host an event and subsequently chooses not to produce that event may be denied the right to apply for funding for two funding periods. This does not include cancellations that are beyond the control of the organization, as determined by the Council.
6. To determine whether there has been a breach of contract, sanctioning must be passed by a 6/9 Executive Council vote.

Section 6: Duties of Funded Organizations

1. An organization is required to attend mandatory meetings, make all arrangements for the funded event, have all Council funded publications and advertising approved by the FAC advisor, and obey any other documented requests set forth by the Council with a 6/9 Executive Council vote. Failure to perform these duties can result in sanctions by the Council for up to two funding periods.
2. The treasurer shall create a physical list of expectations and set a firm deadline(s) for the Funds Request Form submission process. The deadline(s) shall be within the final week of classes. The expectations set forth by the treasurer shall be enforced by the Council. Deadlines and expectations may be waived by a 6/9 Executive Council vote.
3. All ICA teams must provide travel itineraries at least 48 hours in advance with the following information included but not limited to: destination, standing team roster submitted at least once per semester, mode of transportation, etc. Additional items to be included on the itineraries must be provided to the ICA teams well in advance by the Funds Allotment Council. Failure to provide a travel itinerary may result in the Council enacting the organizational punishment process as outlined in the Article VIII in the constitution.

4. Any organization applying for FAC funding for a food-based event requiring a food waiver from Sodexo must obtain said food waiver one week prior to the event. FAC may deny an organization funding if a food waiver is unable to be obtained.
5. If an organization changes their event after the slate has been passed, the Council reserves the right to not fund the event if it is no longer deemed meritable by a 6/9 vote of the Executive Council

Section 7: Power of Members to Impose Sanctions

1. All sanctions imposed by the Council shall require a 6/9 Executive Council vote.
2. The Council may, at any time, recommend that a student or member of an organization be charged with a violation of the Student Conduct Code through a 6/9 Executive Council vote.
3. The Council shall determine if multiple sanctions are to run concurrently or consecutively by a 6/9 Executive Council vote.
4. The Council may, at its discretion, revoke or shorten prior sanctions against an organization by a 6/9 Executive Council vote.

ARTICLE VII RESERVES

Section 1: Definition

1. The establishment of a reserve account shall serve to pay for any unforeseen expenses, beyond the sponsoring organization's control, that may exceed the budget allocated.
2. This reserve account shall be used only in the case of an emergency and is not available for allotment.
3. This reserve account shall be 5% of the Total Acquired Funds (TAF), and is defined in Article VII, Section 1 of the Funds Allotment Council Constitution.

Section 2: Distribution of the Reserve Account

1. If a group's expenses exceed its allocated funding, the sponsoring organization may file a written request to receive funding from the reserve account.
2. The written request shall specify the amount needed and why the group's expenses exceeded the amount allocated.
3. Upon the receipt of the formal request for reserve spending, the Council shall determine the amount of reserve money to be released by a 6/9 Executive Council vote.
4. The Council reserves the right to question the organization prior to its vote on spending reserve funds.
5. The total funding an organization receives from their allotted funds and their funds from the reserve account may not exceed $5,000 a semester for FAC events and $5,000 a year for ICA organizations.

Section 3: Costs in Excess of Allotted Reserves

1. In the event that an organization is not funded by the reserve account, that organization shall be directly responsible for any costs in excess of the original amount allotted for the event. The Council is under no obligation to provide further assistance to the organization.

Section 4: Extraordinary Administrative Costs

1. The Council may, by a 6/9 Executive Council vote, allocate a portion of the reserve account to pay for extraordinary administrative expenses as described in Article VIII of the By-Laws.

ARTICLE VIII ADMINISTRATIVE COSTS

Section 1: Definition

1. All administrative costs of the Council will be paid for from an administrative account monitored by the Council Treasurer. This account shall not exceed 5% of estimated TAF for the current academic year.

Section 2: Uses

1. At the beginning of the academic year, the Council must approve a budget for executive members. Executive member budgets shall last the duration of the academic year and must be passed by a 6/9 Executive Council vote.

2. Council administrative costs may include any printing, publicity and election costs, or any other operational expenses associated with the functioning of the Council.
3. Any expenses over $100 shall require a 6/9 Executive Council vote.

Section 3: Disposal of Unused Portion

1. The administrative account will be closed at the end of each funding period and all remaining money in the account will be returned to the Organizational Activities Fund for allocation during the next funding period.

ARTICLE IX RECOVERY OF REVENUE

Section 1: Direct vs. Indirect Revenue

1. Any revenue brought in directly from an event funded by the Council in excess of the amount contributed by the host organization shall be returned to the FAC Budget within the FRF submission deadline of the event. Direct revenue is defined as income generated from the main focus of an event (e.g. ticket sales).
2. Funded organizations may keep all indirect revenues from funded events. Indirect revenue is defined as income generated outside of the main focus of the event (e.g. t-shirt or other merchandise sales).
3. Organizations must report all revenues to the Council, which, by a 6/9 Executive Council vote, will determine whether revenue is direct or indirect.

Section 2: Repercussions

1. In the event that an organization does not return any excess direct revenue to the Organizational Activities Fund as explained in Section 1 of this Article, that organization may be subject to sanctions by the Council as explained in Article V of the Council By-Laws.

ARTICLE X
FUNDRAISING

Section 1: Fundraising

1. Fundraising for FAC and ICA Organizations is permitted at any time during the year, including fundraising at any FAC funded event or ICA funded competition/exhibition.
2. Fundraising for third parties (i.e. charitable or non-profit organizations) by FAC and ICA funded groups is permitted and will not influence a group's funding.

ARTICLE XI AMENDMENTS

Section 1: Amendment and Revision Process

1. Any member of the Student Association can propose an amendment or revision to the Council By-Laws.
2. Amendments and revisions to these By-Laws may be passed by a 6/9 Executive Council vote.
3. Once approved by the Council, said amendments or revisions will go into effect the following semester.
4. The updated By-Laws must be uploaded to the Council's website.
